

Paper 1 Question 2:

3 X P E A paragraphs

Make 3 separate Points

You will need 2/3 pieces of evidence for each Point

Analyse how the language has been used!

Paper 1 Question 3:

Go chronologically (this means in order)

Split your extract in to 3 pieces (beginning, middle, end)

Write 3 X P E A paragraphs

Make 3 points e.g. 'In the beginning ...'

You will need 2/3 pieces of evidence for each part

Analyse the order of them.

Paper 1 Question 4:

Write one sentence responding to the viewpoint using 'to' and 'because'.

Write 3 x P E A paragraphs

Make 3 points which support your argument

Find evidences to support each point (at least 3)

Analyse them (any technique) and explain how they support your view

Paper 1 Question 5:

Plan your writing focusing on description!

Write 6 or 7 paragraphs using a range of sentence types, lengths and vocabulary

Ensure you get to the end

Paper 2 Question 2:

Write 3 P E I C P E I paragraphs

(Point, evidences, inferences, comparative connective, point, evidences, inferences)

Paper 2 Question 3:

Write 3 P E A paragraphs

Make 3 points answering the questions

Find 2 to 3 pieces of evidence to back up each point

Analyse the effect they create – does it get stronger/ fade towards the end?

Paper 2 Question 4:

Write 3 P E A C P E A paragraphs

Draw a table to list 3 thoughts/feelings/attitudes that are in each source

Your point is the first thought/feeling/attitude you've identified

Find 2 or 3 pieces of evidence to support each point

Analyse how they create the point you've identified

Compare with the Source B

Your point is the first thought/feeling/attitude you've identified

Find 2 or 3 pieces of evidence to support each point

Analyse how they create the point you've identified

Paper 2 Question 5

Stop and plan!

In your plan, ensure you have 5 reasons to back up what you think drawing on your life experiences and what's been in the media

Write between 5 and 6 paragraphs focusing on sentence types, lengths and vocabulary

Try and use humour or irony

Make your end link back to your beginning